

RUSSELL COUNTY LEADERSHIP NOMINATION FORM

The purpose of this form is to formally nominate an individual for Class V of the Russell County Leadership program beginning in August 2026 and ending in May 2027. Russell County Leadership is a dynamic program designed to cultivate emerging leaders in the Russell County area. As rural communities navigate evolving economic and environmental landscapes, strong leadership is essential to ensuring long-term growth and sustainability. This program equips participants with the knowledge, skills, and connections needed to make a meaningful impact in their businesses and communities. Through a series of one-day seminars, participants engage in interactive learning experiences focused on personal and professional development, economic growth, local industries, and community involvement. By fostering collaboration and innovative thinking, Russell County Leadership prepares individuals to take on leadership roles and contribute to the success of rural Kansas.
